

PETS

Pets (except for guide dogs) are strongly discouraged from attending the Pecos Conference. However, if one does attend, it is to be kept on a leash or otherwise physically confined at all times, is not allowed to bark excessively and its excrement must be picked up immediately by its owner. Pets running at large will be impounded.

AREAS OPEN TO CONFERENCE PARTICIPANTS

- the E.E. Fogelson Visitor Center and Main Ruins Trail, open 8 am to 6:00 pm
- the Civil War Battlefield Trail, open 8:00 am to 6:00 pm, check-in at the Visitor Center to get directions and gate lock combination
- the Conference Site (two pastures and access road to the pastures from Trading Post entrance gate).

The rest of the park including the Forked Lightning Ranch House is closed to the public, access is prohibited.

RECREATION FEES

The park entrance fee is included in conference registration fee. Show your name tag at the E.E. Fogelson Visitor Center to avoid being charged. However, if you want to support Pecos NHP, ask about our donation box.

Heather Young, Museum Curator
Pecos National Historical Park
P.O. Box 418
Pecos, NM 87552-0418

phone 505-757-7206
fax 505-757-7207
cell 505-470-2520
heather_young@nps.gov

FedEx Address:
2 mi S of Pecos on Hwy 63
Pecos, NM 87552